* COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Job 38:1–11

Lector The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:

“Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Gird up your loins like a man,

I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me, if you have understanding.

Who determined its measurements—surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

On what were its bases sunk,

or who laid its cornerstone

when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

“Or who shut in the sea with doors

when it burst out from the womb?—

when I made the clouds its garment,

and thick darkness its swaddling band,

and prescribed bounds for it,

and set bars and doors,

and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther,

and here shall your proud waves be stopped?’”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1–3, 23–32 sung by the choir, chant by Edward Cuthbert Bairstow

page 746

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *

and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim * that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands; *

from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Some went down to the sea in ships *

and plied their trade in deep waters;

They beheld the works of the Lord *

and his wonders in the deep.

Then he spoke, and a stormy wind arose, *
 which tossed high the waves of the sea.
They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the depths; *
 their hearts melted because of their peril.
They reeled and staggered like drunkards *
 and were at their wits' end.
Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, *
 and he delivered them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper *
 and quieted the waves of the sea.
Then were they glad because of the calm, *
 and he brought them to the harbor they were bound for.
Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy *
 and the wonders he does for his children.
Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people *
 and praise him in the council of the elders.

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 6:1–13

Lector As we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
 and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 4:35-41

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

All We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.

 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "They that go down to the sea in ships"

Herbert Sumsion
text: Psalm 107:23-30

They that go down to the sea in ships:
and occupy their business in great waters;
These men see the works of the Lord:
and his wonders in the deep.
For at his word the stormy wind ariseth:
which lifteth up the waves thereof.
They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep:
their soul melteth away because of the trouble.
They reel to and fro and stagger like a drunken man:
and are at their wits' end.
So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble:
he delivereth them out of their distress.
For he maketh the storm to cease:
So that the waves thereof are still.
Then they are glad because they are at rest:
and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

Presider

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

A Book Study on Discipleship • July 7, 14, 21, 28

9:15 a.m. • Common Room

Dean Andy and Fr. James will co-teach a book study on Life Together by Dietrich Bonhoeffer. Based on the common life Bonhoeffer experienced with his seminarians at the Finkenwald seminary before it was closed by the Nazis, we will read and discuss his reflections on the nature of Christian community. We'll also look at various aspects of discipleship such as prayer, discipline, and practice.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination: "Out of the Whirlwind" (Job 38 - 42)

"Why do bad things happen, especially to people I know and care about?" "Why do people suffer, especially those who try to live in faithfulness to God and consideration of others?" "Why do horrible natural calamities occur, destroying lives, livelihoods, communities, and dwellings?" "What purpose could there possibly be for the unexpected tragedies suffered along the journey of life?" Those who claim to have neatly packaged answers to such questions don't (e.g., read the entire Book of Job). So, where might the suffering soul turn for comfort and guidance?

These are the kinds of questions with which the Book of Job wrestles. In its concluding chapters (38-42) Thomas Ingmire captures this struggle visually in a three-part illumination collectively titled "Out of the Whirlwind". In part one, "Out of the Whirlwind – Where are You", God responds to Job's pleas for explanation with probing questions rather than the anticipated words of clarification and consolation. God's words coming out of the whirlwind are rhetorical and challenging and seem unsympathetic. Yet, the outcome is a transformation of Job's thinking -- God has reasons the human mind cannot fathom so, even should we receive the responses we think we want, they could not satisfy our questions.

In part two, "Out of the Whirlwind – Now My Eyes see You", Job still has not gotten the type of answers he anticipated with his queries, but he has gained a new and more satisfying relationship with God: "I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you."

Finally, in part three, "Out of the Whirlwind – He will wipe away Every Tear", the experiences of pain, loss, and suffering (expressed through the descending words "the fire of God") are placed on the foundation of Revelation 21:4, pointing to that place beyond human suffering that we cannot now grasp but are assured awaits us. Ingmire hereby suggests that the answers we seek reside not even in this or any other particular book, but beyond. God's ways are beyond the human capacity to comprehend given the limitations inherent in our current state of existence.

What do you think Job means by the statement, "I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you"? What is the deeper insight that Job has gained? How does that fit your understanding of the whirlwind response? How does today's Gospel reading connect with the insights portrayed here?
