Children

Children are welcome in all our services and activities for them are available on a shelf in the back aisle.

- Childcare for those 4 years old and younger is available in the nursery in Haden Hall.
- We observe Family Worship one Sunday of each month so there is no Cathedral Kids. Worship Boxes with resources for children are in the back cross aisle. Upcoming Family Worship Sundays: February 23, March 23, April 27, May 11.
- For elementary age children, Cathedral Kids meets during the first half of the 10:30 a.m. worship service and during this time we weave together our sacred stories and our Episcopal identity with the Weaving God's Promises curriculum! Children attending Cathedral Kids will meet their parents or guardians inside the tower doors during the passing of the peace.
- To get to Haden Hall: From the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs or ask an usher for directions.

Restrooms

Gendered restrooms are available in Founders' Hall. A non-gendered and accessible restroom is available at west end (rear) of the Cathedral.

Hearing Assist Devices

Connect your Bluetooth enabled devices through the Listen Everywhere app. Detailed instructions are available on the table near the entrance. Other (not Bluetooth) hearing assist devices are also available on the table near the entrance.

* COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Malachi 3:1-4

Lector Thus says the Lord, See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24:7-10 by the choir, chant by George Thalben-Ball

page 613

Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is this King of glory?” *
“The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle.”

Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is he, this King of glory?” *
“The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory.”

Second Lesson: Hebrews 2:14-18

Lector Since God's children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

People Thanks be to God.

* GOSPEL HYMN: 259 "Hail to the Lord who comes"

1 Hail to the Lord who comes, comes to his temple gate;
 2 but, borne up on the throne of Mary's gentle breast,
 3 There Joseph at her side in reverent wonder stands;
 4 O Light of all the earth, thy children wait for thee!

not with his angel host, not in his king-ly state;
 watched by her devout love, in her fond arms at rest,
 and, filled with holy joy, old Simeon in his hands
 Come to thy temples here, that we, from sin set free,

no shouts proclaim him nigh, no crowds his coming wait;
 thus to his Father's house he comes, the heavenly guest.
 takes up the promised child, the glory of all lands.
 be - fore thy Father's face may all pre - sent - ed be!

Words: John Ellerton (1826-1893), alt. Music: Old 120th, melody from The Whole Booke of Psalmes, 1570; harm. Thomas Ravenscroft (1592?-1635?), after Richard Allison (16th cent.); adapt. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958). All rights reserved. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-710278.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 2:22-40

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

"Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
 according to your word;
 for my eyes have seen your salvation,

which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.”

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, “This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

adapted from Hear Our Prayer: Prayers of the People for the Revised Common Lectionary

Intercessor Most Holy God, cast away the shadows in our lives that we might know the glory of your presence and hear and respond to our prayers that we might more fully live into your dreams for us as we say, Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Guide your whole church into the light of your revelation and grant us the will and commitment to continue the mission of Jesus in our own lives.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Watch over our next bishop, Amy, and her family as they prepare to join us in our life and ministry.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Grant the people of this nation the will to live in peace and to work in unity for the benefit of all people.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Show us gathered here today the glory of your Son and help us discern more clearly your call on our lives that we might work in concert towards furthering the reign of Christ.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Kindle in our hearts a sense of urgency and a firm commitment to be better stewards of your creation, that all future generations may know the abundance we have taken for granted.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Be with all who suffer, relieve their distress, and bring healing to whatever needs mending in their bodies, souls and minds. We pray especially for those on the Cathedral's Prayer List, and for those whom we now name silently or aloud.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Welcome the dying into your loving care and deal gently with all who grieve. We pray especially for those we now name, either silently or aloud.

Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Presider In Christ we have seen your desire for our lives. Guide us into truly living into His example. All this we ask through our Lord and intercessor, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and always. Amen.

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God,
 we confess that we have sinned against you
 in thought, word, and deed,
 by what we have done,
 and by what we have left undone.
 We have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
 We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
 For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
 have mercy on us and forgive us;
 that we may delight in your will,
 and walk in your ways,
 to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

* THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.
Ephesians 5:2

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "When to the temple Mary went"

Johannes Eccard (1553-1611)
 translation: John Troutbeck

When to the Temple Mary went, and brought the Holy Child,
 Him did the aged Simeon see, as it had been revealed.
 He took up Jesus in his arms and, blessing God, he said:
 "In peace I now depart, my Saviour having seen,
 the Hope of Israel, the Light of men."
 Help now Thy servants, gracious Lord, that we may ever be,
 as once the faithful Simeon was, rejoicing but in Thee;
 and when we must from Earth departure take,
 may gently fall asleep, and with Thee wake.

Presider

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Presider

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
 All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
 and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION

All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.

For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down. For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

On the first Sunday of each month, prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk until the close of worship.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Youth meet in the Haden Hall Youth Room for formation with a light breakfast.

10:30 a.m. • Worship

6 p.m. • Youth Group

Join us for dinner and fellowship in the Youth Room.

Adults: Sundays

The Path • 9:15 a.m. • Common Room

In our Adult Formation this year we will take a journey using Forward Movement's The Path, an excerpted version of the Bible that covers most of the major stories chronologically. Through The Path, we will become familiar with the grand overarching narrative of the entire Bible. We will learn the story of God's extraordinary and unrelenting love for us in its many dimensions.

Copies of The Path are available in the Cathedral Bookstore if you would like to own a personal copy. Each chapter will be printed out weekly and made available so that everyone can follow along.

New attendees welcome at any time!

Adults: Tuesdays

GHTC's Virtual Cafe • 7:30 a.m. • Zoom

Please join us for our weekly conversation in GHTC's Virtual Cafe! Tuesday mornings from 7:30-9 a.m. For details, visit kccathedral.org/other-activities.

Women's Bible Study • 12:30 p.m. • Zoom

Conversation is lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome. Visit the WBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/wbs for more information.

Lectionary Bible Study • 6:45 p.m. • Zoom

We study the lessons for the upcoming Sunday. Join the Lectionary Bible Study group in Realm or visit the LBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/lbs for more details.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

“If I Speak in the Tongues of Mortals”

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

Today's special text treatment was the last artwork produced by Thomas Ingmire for the Saint John's Bible. It portrays a message written by the Apostle Paul to a troubled church that was being destroyed by divisions and bitter rivalries (read chapters 1 through 12 of 1 Corinthians). Ingmire's depiction captures the nature of the problem as well as the spirit for its needed solutions.

Ingmire visualizes Paul's message in two parts. In the first portion, the apostle questions the usefulness of any action or spiritual gift if it is not practiced in agape love. The physical positioning of this part of the passage appears to be out of place. Its lettering is patchy, dark, and disjointed. It feels unharmonious and inappropriate. It seems ugly and filled with tension.

The second part of the message enumerates essential qualities of love — qualities indicative of the transforming work of Christ in the hearts of both individual believers and of the collective faith community. This section begins “Love is patient; love is kind...” and continues to itemize the importance of love in association with each of the values listed. In conjunction with this, the text moves from solid colors to simple forms as it descends down the page, producing a rainbow effect. Consequently, the treatment not only contains some of the most graphic and eloquent text of all Paul's writings, it also conjures an enduring image of hope and of God's abiding presence, symbolized by the rainbow. Biblically, the rainbow appears after a storm offering assurance that we are not forgotten.

Ingmire's imagery implies that it is God incarnate who bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. Were this not the case, the Corinthian church would have been bereft of all hope. Neither would there be hope for our world today without the abiding work of God's love. Apart from Christ's work in us we cannot love in the way Paul describes in these verses.

Thankfully, we are assured that God's love does endure. After all else in life fades away, this love abides.

IF I SPEAK
IN THE TONGUES
OF MORTALS
OR AS ANGELS
BUILD ON OTTIVE LOVE.
I AM NOTHING.
I HAVE PROPHECY
AND UNDERSTAND
ALL MYSTERIES
AND ALL KNOWLEDGE.
AND I SHALL CALL FAITH.
SO AS TO REMOVE MOUNTAINS
I BUILD ON OTTIVE LOVE.
I AM NOTHING.
I GIVE AWAY
ALL MY POSSESSIONS
AND IFF AND OVR MY BODY
SO THAT I MAY BOAST.
BUT DO NOT HAVE LOVE.
I GAIN NOTHING.

PRAYER FOR THE TRANSITION OF OUR NEXT BISHOP

Gracious and Loving God, we give thanks for the election of our next Bishop, Amy. Watch over Amy, her husband Jared, and their children Elise, Jacob, and Woodrow as they prepare to leave friends, colleagues, and neighbors to join us here in the Diocese of West Missouri. Open our hearts to receive your inspiration and wisdom so that we may joyfully welcome them into our life and ministry in You. This we ask in grateful thanksgiving. AMEN.

The graphic features a stylized outdoor scene with a sun, clouds, trees in various colors (orange, green, yellow), a blue tent, and a campfire with logs.

Join us June 1-7, 2025 for Episcopal Summer Mega Camp!

Mega Camp is a 1-week overnight summer camp experience for young people who have finished grades 3-12. There's boating, horseback riding, archery, climbing tower, hiking, arts & crafts, plus Episcopal worship and formation. The camp community is like nothing else: campers will feel accepted and loved for who they are and be able to build their faith with others their age.

Camp is not restricted to Episcopalians or regular churchgoers. All are welcome, so feel free to invite friends and family.

Contact Clare (cstern@kccathedral.org) for details about registration, cost and scholarship availability.

Volunteer Opportunities

The Emergency Food Assistance Program

In partnership with St. Paul's on Main, we have been invited to help organize and distribute food directly to clients food delivered to St. Paul's by Harvesters, a regional food bank, as part of TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program). We meet from about 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Upcoming TEFAP dates:
February 15, March 15

To volunteer or for more information, contact Deacon Barbara 816.739.8032 or bwegener@kccathedral.org.

Pete's Garden

In the lower level of Founders' Hall, Pete's Garden is a food rescue committed to less food waste and more family meals. They collect unserved prepared food from caterers, restaurants and food service operations each day.

Volunteers work together to portion and package donated food so it can be redirected to social service agencies who get meals to families.

Sign up for a shift at

Announcements & Upcoming Events

February Game Night: Trivia Edition Friday, February 7 • 6-9 p.m. • Common Room

Join in the fun as we launch an inaugural trivia night. Have dinner at home and then come to the Common Room to team up with your fellow GHTCers and win the prize.

Bring snacks and drinks, whatever you think you'll need to keep your wits about you.

Adult Confirmation/Inquirers Class Sundays beginning February 9 • 9:15 a.m. Multipurpose Room

Would you like to formally join the Cathedral and the Episcopal Church? Interested in exploring confirmation, reaffirmation or reception? If so, please prayerfully consider joining us Sunday, February 9 in the Multipurpose Room in Lower Founders' Hall between morning services for an introductory meeting to explore what this might mean for you. Bishop Diane will be with us to Confirm/Reaffirm/Receive at the Easter Vigil on April 19. If you are interested but not able to join us for the first meeting, please let Dean Andy (akeyse@kccathedral.org) know and then plan to join us as soon as you are able.

Absalom Jones Fundraiser Luncheon Saturday, February 15 • 11 a.m. • Founders' Hall

The Diocese of West Missouri invites you to join us for luncheon fundraiser and panel discussion in Founders' Hall. This luncheon fundraiser will assist the Diversity and Reconciliation's Juneteenth Trip to southern Missouri in June of this year. After the luncheon, a panel discussion will be held for the book Black and Episcopalian, The Struggle for Inclusion by the Rev. Dr. Gayle Fisher-Stewart, who will be attending the luncheon. Tickets are available for the luncheon fundraiser at $40. Buy your tickets: diowestmo.org

Absalom Jones Service Sunday, February 16 • 4 p.m. St. Augustine's Episcopal Church

The Diocese of West Missouri invites you to join us for the Absalom Jones Service at St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, 2732 Benton Blvd, Kansas City, MO.

Evensong, Organ Recital & Reception February 16 • 5 p.m.

Choral Evensong is a service offered by members of the Trinity Choir. This contemplative service lasts about 45 minutes and includes hymns, scripture readings, prayers, chanted Psalms, canticles and a choir anthem. With its origins in Archbishop Thomas Cranmer's Book of Common Prayer (1549), Evensong is one of the most uniquely Anglican liturgies and is sung in cathedrals and parishes throughout the world. Following the service, all are welcome to take communion in the Chapel.

Immediately following Evensong, stay for a 30-minute organ recital by Dr. Elisa Williams Bickers. Elisa is the Principal Organist and co-director of music at the Mission campus of Village Presbyterian Church.

Following the recital, all are invited to a reception in the Common Room.

Paper Drive for Sheffield Place

Bring donations of toilet paper, paper towels and tissues to the basket in the Tower during the month of February. Sheffield Place assists homeless women and children in making the difficult journey from homelessness to self-sufficiency.

Connect to the Cathedral in a Deeper Way: Volunteer from Dr. Joan Bergstrom, Volunteer Coordinator

I want to encourage you to connect to our church in a deeper way by joining a Volunteer group, either in worship or in hospitality. The worship services and hospitality are the spark that provides the vitality of our family formed in faith. Our need for more volunteers is real. Please consider supporting these ministries. Don't know how to do it? No worries — we'll train you.

You can find your fit by visiting our website at kccathedral.org/volunteer. The descriptions of the various ways you can serve are listed there and you can also click the link to contact me for more information or to sign up. Thank you!
